A soldier and an Israeli woman civilian were slightly injured yesterday afternoon outside El Arish when a small explosive charge planted near the entrance to a restaurant went off. The pair, who were cut by flying glass from the restaurant's smashed front window, were sent home after treatment.

The blast occurred at 1 o'clock, as the two were aproaching the Israeli-owned "William's" restaurant, a busy spot on the eastern edge of the North Sinal town. Security forces, which are inves-tigating, believe that a small ex-plosive charge had been placed in a can near the restaurant entrance. No arrests have been made so far. The incident was the first to disturb the calm in Arish in several months.

The Iraqi, who is deputy chairman of the revolutionary command coun-cil, said: "The dialogue between our two countries continues on this matter. But the Palestinian cause is a matter for the Arabs, and our Soviet friends are not Arabs.

"In a general manner, however, there is no basic contradiction between the positions of our two governments concerning the struggle waged against imperialism and Zionism. Moscow supplies us with the means to counter aggression and we are greateful to them for this."

But the Iraci leader hastened to "The agreement which we have just concluded with the Soviets is not a military treaty. In the interests of our two peoples, we wished to raise our friendly er level and to make them permanent."

'Carnival' amid the fighting

SAIGON (AP). - Communist troops have succeeded in blocking a strategic highway pass in the Central Highlands for four days and the efforts of South Korean soldiers to dislodge them is attracting scores of spectators in a "carnival atmosphere," field reports from the area said yesterday.

The reports said South Vietnamese officers were angry with the Koreans, claiming they were not trying hard enough to drive the Communists out of fortified positions controlling the An Khe Pass on Highway 19.

The pass is about halfway on the 136 km. highway between Qui Nhon on the central coast and Pleiku. The road is a vital supply route for Government forces in the Highlands.

A company of Korean soldiers was reported on the Highway itself, under sniper fire from about two squads of Communist troops dug on a hillside and the top of a knoll. The Koreans were reported to have suffered light casualties.
The "carnival atmosphere" was reported by eyewitnesses, one of whom said dozens of spectators had been attracted to the scene, primarily as the result of buses and other traffic being tied up on both sides of the pass. The spectators are watching from an aljacent hillside where there is no threat to safety and vendors are hawking fruit and other items, the witness said. "Occasionally, a cheer goes up when the Koreans open fire on the North Vietnamese," he said.

SAIGON. -- Thousands of North Vietnamese troops backed by 40 or more tanks surged out of the jungle and overran half of the provincial capital of An Loc yesterday, but suffered huge losses in the onslaught.

American and South Vietnamese gunships pouring out 6,000 rounds of machinegun fire a minute flew strating runs to hurl back waves of Communist troops running into the outskirts of the town, 95 kms. north of Saigon.

Earlier, South Vietnamese officers said 12,000 government defenders, supported by more than 100 air strikes, drove back the thrust by 3,000 North Vietnamese infantrymen and a column of 30 tanks.

They claimed 200 North Vietnamese soldiers were killed and the entire tank battalion wiped out. Twenty of the tanks were destroyed in street fighting inside the city, including Soviet-made T-54 medium tanks and light amphiblous assault PT76s, the officers claimed.

Initial reports said about 15 to 20 South Vietnamese soldiers were killed and 30 wounded.

At noon, South Vietnamese Rangers were reported locked in heavy, close combat with Communist forces just to the east of the city. Lead elements of a 20,000-man relief column moving north on Highway 13 were stopped from advancing for the third day running by heavy Communist attacks 19 kms. south of An Loc. Col. Truong Huu Duc, commander

IRAQ TREATY HAS GIVEN SOVIET GULF FOOTHOLD

THE Soviet-Iraqi treaty of friendship, signed at the weekend by Prime Minister Alexei Kosygin during his visit to Bagnided is not simply a consoli-dation of Soviet influence in the Arab world. It is a signal that Moscow no longer considers Egypt as preeminent among its friends and is looking elsewhere

The Russians are not sure whether President Sadat can be relied upon in the long rum. The treaty with Iraq given them a position in the Arab world which is no longer entirely dependent upon Egypt, and it is quite possible that the next step in this process might be a treaty with Syria

In signing the treaty with Iraq Moscow had to keep in view its relations with Iran, which have anding phenomenally in recent years; particularly in the economic field. Irag's acquisition of a powerful protector with treaty obligations is unlikely to be warmly received in Teheran 🤫

Why then have the Russians taken this step? The answer is simple. While cultivating Iran and Turkey, Moscow has lately been concerned about the fact that these two countries still hanker after American patronage. It feels that their triendship at a political level cannot be taken for granted. By signing a treaty with Irau, which lies between them, the Soviet Union has forestalled any move by Ankara and Teheran to construct a powerful Islamic bloc, basically pro-Western, stretching up to Pakistan all along the Soviet border.

At the same time it is hoped here that the Turkish and Iranian authorities will come to see the wisdom of avoiding any move against Soviet interests. President Podgorny, now in Turkey, certainly explained to his hosts that their attitude left little alternative wards fraq than a hostile move against Turkey.

in the Indian Ocean and the Persian Gulf. The Russians have repeatedly asserted that they do not want bases in the Indian Ocean area. They are sincere in this because they know that bases of this kind always lead to political strains in the long run. All the same, Moscow does need friendly ports of call in cases of emergency and for refuelling.

Iran seems to have accepted the American presence as a friendly one and has even suggested that it will be useful in counteracting Soviet influence in the area. With the Iraqi treaty, Moscow has turned the tables. It now has a legitimate excuse to keep an eye on this American naval presence and protect Iraq's supply lines if need be.

would like it, Mr. Nusseibeh was reluctant to commit himself.

Welcomed with applause when he was introduced as "a citizen of Jordan," the charming speaker was also given an ovation at the end of the session.

Mr. Nusserbeh said he had objected to the elections on the West Bank as a violation of the Geneva Convention, which did not give the occupying power the authority to hold them. "The old and if you wish ossified leaders" had not generally been replaced in the elections, he said.

Referring to Hussein's federation plan, Mr. Nusselben considered the sharply hostile reaction of Israel, the Arab states and the "liberation," movements "unjustified."

Asked whether he ægreed with condemnation by the U.N. Human Rights Commission of Israel actions in the territories, Mr. Nusseibeh sald he "was not in a position to com-ment on the Commission's findings." He did, however, cite a long list of what he called "violations of the Geneva Convention" by Israel He referred to the "confiscation of lands, Asked about the desecration by Jordan of synagogues and Jewish cometeries in the Old City, he said he had no knowledge of such acts during the 19 years of Jordanian rule. He said that since 1967 he had found a derelict mosque in Haifa (now repaired), a supermarket built on the Jerusalem Moslem cemetery and a snack bar at a Jaffa. holy site.

One student referred to Jordanian threats before the Six Day War to "kill all the Jews," and asked "what's the difference between you and your kind and Hitler?" Mr. Nusseibeh answered that the Moslem Middle East had welcomed Jews from Europe in the Middle Ages "because we believe that we are both Semites and our religions have common roots. I cannot conceive of anybody mentioning the abominations of the Hitler regime and the 'Arabs in one breath.'

He objected to Israeli settlement on the West Bank as a "negative factor, impeding progress to a just settlement," and intended to facilitate an imposed settlement.

He did not contest "your right to ive here, but I contest your denial of the Arabs' right to live here too."

IN/HAT was the difference between the cases of Meyer Lansky and Joe Stasher? This was a question posed to the Winster of Interior, Dr. Yosef Burg by members of The Jerusalem Post staff at an interview this week. Why had the Interior Ministry granted Mr. Stasher an immigrant's permit and then refused the same to Mr. Lansky, when both men are allegedly connected with the U.S. underworld? (Mr. Lansky. is now contesting the Ministry's re-

This is the price that General Motors paid AUD! NSU for the nonexclusive rights to produce the "Wankel" engine in the U.S.A.

And there is really nothing we can add to what an executive for one of G.M.'s rivals, said a little bluntly - "If G.M. pays $50 Million for an engine it must be worth every penny of it."

The revolutionary "Wankel" engine has been invented and developed exclusively by AUDI NSU, and originally installed in the NSU RO 80, since then it has been improved and brought to perfection. Now it functions problem - free.

Even the Americans have recognised its unique advantages: A rotary engine that is more compact and mechnically far simpler than the conventional piston engine. The Wankel engine turns out better performance and better fuel economy.

When G.M.'s president, E. Cole, was told recently that one writer has predicted that G.M.'s "Wankel" would be powering the firms '76 Models, he just grinned and said: "I think he was being conservative".

The RO 80 is a sensational car not only because of it's unique engine but mainly because of it's perfect most progressive design, extraordinary comfort and built - in safety features that make it "The safest car in the world". Those who owned a RO 80, have turned into "Spoiled" drivers who won't change to any

You don't have to wait until 1976, to enjoy the "Wankel" engine, the RO 80 is available now Get out of the herd - drive a RO 80 at any one of AUD! NSU dealers.

There was a 7.2 per cent increase in the number of reported road accidents in March — a smaller rise than expected taking into consideration the usual seasonal increase from February to March - the spokesmen of the Central Bureau of Statistics and of the police said yesterday. The police reported 1,244 accidents in March (only accidents involving injuries are recorded), compared with 1,160 in February. In March 42 persons were killed and 302 seriously hurt as compared with 55 and 295 in February. From January 1 to March 31, there were 3,661 acci-dents with 157 killed and 5,001 injured. Ex-Rafi M.K.s have apparently told Gahal and the N.R.P., however, that they should not delay their support for Mr. Navon until it is too late. The ex-Rafi wing of the Alignment will not put up Mr. Na-von as a rival to Mr. Yeshayahu in the actual election - nor vote for him even in the extremely unlikely event of him consenting to stand on a non-Labour proposal once the Alignment has made up its mind whom it will sponsor.

(The Mapam wing of the Alignment does not care whether Mr. Yeshyahu or Mr. Navon is elected.) Gahal and the N.R.P. have meanwhile told their ex-Rafi contacts within the Alignment, that if Mr. Navon does not stand, they will put up somebody else to challenge Mr. Yeshayahu. Gahal would nomi-nate either Prof. Klinghoffer or Dr.

DUEL WITH GOREN FOR CHIEF RABBINATE LIKELY

Jerusalem Post Reporter Ashkenazi Chief Rabbi Isser Yehuda Ucterman, who is well into his eightles, has decided to stand again for Chief Rabbi in the forthcoming Chief Rabbinate elections. Interior Minister and N.R.P. leader Dr. Yosef Burg spent two fruitless hours this week trying to dissuade the aged but active rabbi from running for office, But Rabbi Unterman told him that he was bowing to pressure from friends both in Israel and abroad who wanted him to run

Rabbi Unterman has also dispatched a letter to the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menahem Schneerson of New York, informing him of his decision to run. The Lubavitcher Rebbe had been urging him to stand for election, and had a long tele-phone conversation with Rabbi Unterman to this end when Rabbi Unterman was in Milan two months ago. The pressure on Rabbi Unterman from Orthodox circles to run again is motivated mainly by these circles' desire to keep Tel Aviv Chief Rabbi Rabbinate. ## Sneh loyalists win out

Jerusalem Post Political Reporter TEL AVIV. — The Sneh loyalists yesterday won overwhelmingly in the internal party vote for delegates to the 17th national convention of Maki, the Israel Communist Party, which opens here next Thursday. The results, which confirmed the new leadership of Sneh-supporters Yair Tsaban of Tei Aviv and Raoul Teitelbaum of Jerusalem, were a strong vote of confidence for the deas of the late Party leader.

Party Secretary-General Shmuel Mikunis M.K. modified his previous leftist stand and joined the new eadership at the last minute, leaving the opposition headed by Party Histadrut faction head Either Wilenska and Eliezer Reilier of kibbutz Yad Hanna, with just under 20 per cent of the vote. It is understood that that the minority is already threatening to boycott the coming convention, charging that the poll was rigged.
